The latest issue of Lifestyle Magazine has just been published, and I have two articles in it.

Diner Dash is my ode to breakfast. More precisely, it is my encomium to eating breakfast at a diner, something my wife and I do probably once a week on average. Life is good, and comes with slices of melon on the side.

Retirement Living, Canadian Style is a quick survey of various cities in Canada thought to be good places to retire.
